

Australian Dairy Farmers (ADF) is the national voice for dairy farmers across Australia. Our mission is to provide strong leadership and nationally coordinated policy and advocacy. Our goal is to grow internationally competitive, innovative and sustainable farm businesses.

ADF membership provides farmers:

- The ability to communicate directly with ADF on national issues of interest;
- Access to information and policy (papers) on national issues;
- The opportunity to apply to participate in one of the five ADF Policy Advisory Groups (PAGs) where you have expertise and interest;
- A vote on the election of ADF Board Members;
- The opportunity to stand for the ADF Board and National Council; and
- A vote on all resolutions presented to the Annual General Meeting.

There are no additional fees to join ADF. To be a member of ADF, you must be a member of the relevant State Farmer/ State Dairy Organisation that is a member of ADF.
