Opt-out of member communications

ADF will send newsletters and other important information from time to time. There are some items ADF is required to send you as a member, and opting out will not remove you from receiving these communications. These items may include official notices of meetings, ballot papers and annual reports.

You are welcome to opt out of non-essential newsletters and industry updates. Please click the button below if you wish to opt out of these communications.

☐ I want to opt out of ADF communications

Policy Advisory Group (PAG) membership

ADF's Policy Advisory Groups (PAGs) allow dairy farmers to directly shape our policy and advocacy priorities. PAGs bring dairy farmers together with ADF leaders to discuss emerging issues, test policy ideas, and provide practical, on-farm insight to inform decisions made by the ADF Board and National Council.

They cover key areas including trade and economics, people and communities, and farm operations, land use, water and the environment. PAG membership is a valuable opportunity to contribute your experience, help guide industry policy, and ensure dairy farmer voices are front and centre in national decision-making.

☐ Please contact me about PAG membership
